ATHLETIC ENTERTAINMENT.

A Good Attendance and a Lively Show All Round.

There was a good attendance at the athletic entertainment at the Beretania street armory on Saturday evening. The club swinging by young H. Sheldon was very neat and elicited great applause. The fourround contest for a silver medal, to represent the bantam championship, was fought for by Mr. Lau-caster and A. Jackson, the latter a Hawaiian and pupil of G. Washington. A fifth round was ordered by the referee, and at the conclusion a draw was de lared. A clog dance by W. Duncalf was one of the best exhibitions of the kind ever given in Honolulu. The wrestling, Graeco Roman style, be-tween J. Spencer and W. Wilder was won by the former easily. About this time Joseph Marsden while walking down the hall tripped up Warrimoo which arrived from Vanand fell on his bread-basket. Some wag sang out "First fail," and there were roars of laughter. Varieties by the "Original Big Six" kept the audience in good humor till they Patterson, harbor policeman, stood retired. Included in the six were three real "cullud gemmens." One of the jokes cracked was about a ing down to the wharf to arrest the around to-day, endeavoring to get pile driver for fast driving. This natives to sign the pledge to uphold was one on Wagner. HOLY WEEK AND EASTER.

Great Musical Celebrations in the Wife of a Reservoir Keeper Found Churches.

Easter Sunday was preceded by impressive services during holy week in the Anglican and Catholic churches day and evening. On the Sunday the churches were densely crowded at the principal celebra-

In the Roman Catholic Cathedral on Thursday evening Very Rev. Father Leonor preached the sermon on the passion, occupying an hour and a quarter. It was a remarkable oratorical feat for the aged priest. He was followed by Rev. Father Campos in Portuguese. The cathedral was crowded to the doors on both occasions. On Good Friday Father Campos presided at the stations of the cross in Portuguese, and Father Francis of St. Louis College in English, both to densely crowded congregations. Father Francis conducted the 9 o'clock mass on Easter Sunday. Music was furnished by the orchestra and choir of St. Louis College. High pontifical mass was celebrated at 10:30 by the Bishop of Panopolis, with Father Francis as deacon, Father Matthias as sub-deacon, and Father Clement as assistant priest. St. Louis College band led the music. A great many visitors added to the multitude that overflowed the spacious edifice. There were large congregations present also at the 6 and 7 a. m. services. Many candidates were confirmed in the afternoon. The service of the Portuguese missionary, Father Campos, at 7 p. m. was crowded.

All through the services of holy week and Easter Day, the music in An offer of employment combined the Catholic church is described as with foreign travel is made to-day, having been simply perfect. It was entirely by native singers and players, with the exception of some of the college performers.

In St. Andrew's Cathedral the Easter celebration began Saturday evening with a full choral service concluding with the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," to music by Sir Arthur Sullivan.

At 5:30 Sunday morning the first service by the Second Congregation was held, a celebration of the holy communion, the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh officiating. Seventy persons at this early hour partook of the sacred elements.

The first congregation at 6:30 held a choral celebration of the holy communion, the Bishop of Honolulu celebrating, assisted by the Rev. V. H. Kitcat. The music was sung by the choir of boys and men. There were about a hundred communicants. At 11 o'clock there was another choral service, intoued by the Rev. V. H. Kitcat. The Bishop preached to a large congregation. Stainer's Te Deum was sung by the boy choir, also the anthem, "The foe behind." In the afternoon there was service in Hawaiian, at which a number of children were baptized.

The second congregation had full choral service at 9:30 a. m., the cathedral being so crowded that many people failed to get admis-sion. Special music was beautifully rendered by the choir of ladies and gentlemen, including: Easter carol, the anthem, "Christ Our Passover; Te Deum by Vogrich, Jubilate by Bridgwater, and an anthem, "On Vliet, Misses Von Holt and May Atkinson, Messrs. laukea and Pierce Rev. T. Griffiths, Chaplain of H. M. S. Champion, assisted at the service. Men from the Champion attended in a body. There followed another celebration of the holy communion, eighty-three persons remaining. Both congregations had goodly attendances at evening prayer. There were a carol and an anthem included in the praises of the second. Wray Taylor officiated at the organ throughout the day for both congregations.

Central Union Church observed Easter Day by special music and decorations.

FELL FROM HIS HORSE.

A Native Meets With a Serious Mishap on Palama Road.

A native named Makaimi came into town from Palama on horseback yesterday noon and was returning home about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when opposite the California Feed Co.'s warehouse, he met with a very serious accident. While he was riding along on his sorrel steed, his bat was blown off. He stopped and while in the act of wheeling his horse around lost his hold and fell off. The unfortunate man struck on the tramway rail on the back of his head, cutting it open and knocking him senseless. Friends picked him up and put him in a back, he being still unconscious by the China. Mr. Squier is an and black in the face. On the way the two men, who were taking him home, thinking he was probably cead, gave him two or three hard blows on the back, which brought him to his senses to their surprise. Besides the cut on the head, Makaimi sustained some injury in the back of the neck.

WOMAN IN DISTRESS

Half Dead in a Swamp.

A telephone message was received at the Police Station Saturday evening from Kancohe that a woman had been seen at the Pali nearly dead. Captain Klemme despatched a patrolman and a native officer to the Pali at 10 o'clock to find the woman. The one who sent the telephone said the cries of the woman could be heard on the road. When the officers arrived at a point directly opposite an old shanty on the left-hand side, formerly used for storing tools, near the Pali, they heard wailing as of some one in agony. They pushed into the brush. wandering about a mile and getting up to their waists in water, when they saw a native woman lying on the edge of a swamp with her body half in the water. She had on only a holoku. The woman was half dead, shivering with cold and articulating incoherently. The officers picked her up and carried her out to the road, experiencing great diffi-culty in pushing through the bushes. They started for town with their load and met a native on the road who recognized the woman as the wife of the keeper of the Nuuanu reservoir. She was then carried to his house. The reservoir keeper said his wife left at 4 o'clock that afterboon to go to the mountains to get guavas, and he was thinking of going to search for her in the morning. The officers started for town at 2 o'clock.

CHINESE ORGANIZE.

Protective Union Formed with a Membership of Five Hundred.

The Chinese resident in Honolulu have formed an organization under the name of the Chinese Protective Union. It already numbers 500 members, including most of the leading merchants. Its objects are mutual benefit, the relief of distress among the Chinese, and protection of the interests of that nationality throughout the group. The society is formed on law-abiding principles and will be characterized by respect for the constituted authorities. Officers as yet are temporarily appointed, and permanent ones will be elected on the adoption of constitu-tion and bylaws. The headquarters are on the upper floor of the building at the corner of Hotel and Maunakea streets, formerly occupied as a restaurant.

Thousands of Brick.

schooner Aloha, which arrived from San Francisco on Saturday, had included in her cargo sixty thousand brick for the Pacific Fertilizer & Phosphate Co. The brick will be discharged at the Oabu Railway wharf, to be taken by rail to Kalihi, where the new depository building of the Phosphate Co. is being erected. About sixty thousand more of brick will be brought down by the subsequent like down by the schooner Alice Cooke. The building will be a large one. Already a track has been laid to the building from the railway.
